

CENTENNIAL PATRIOT MUSTER 2010 ::: HAPPY BIRTHDAY BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

What are the events being planned?

- A 2-night Boy Scout camporee featuring
 - Wilderness style Cooking Merit Badge and recipes.
 - Pioneering Merit Badge creating interconnecting towers
 - Surveying Merit Badge without electronics
 - American Heritage Merit Badge
 - Citizenship of the Nation Merit Badge
- A 2-day Minutecub Muster for Cub Scouts with an optional family overnight camping event.
- A 2-day Revolutionary Re-enactment between about 300 members of the Continental Line and 300 members of the British Regulars; featuring dragoons, cannon bombardments and tactics of the day.
- A Saturday night Patriotic Campfire featuring special guests and the music of the day.

Dates/Location for the Scouting Celebration Event: June 11th thru 13th at Spencer Pierce Little Farm in Newbury, Massachusetts.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- Set up Boy Scouts, Colonial and British encampments Friday night
- Pioneering Competition and Surveying for Scouts Saturday and Sunday
- Tactics and Battle Saturday afternoon with a special recognition of the 100th Anniversary of Scouting.
- Celebration bonfire with address from Special Guests
- Tactics and Battle Sunday afternoon (Americans win)

Centennial Patriot Muster Cost:

Registration cost for Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts is $25 per scout, including patch and T-shirt, prior to January 31st, 2010. Registration increases after that date. LIMITED TO FIRST 1500 BOY SCOUTS, CUB SCOUTS AND LEADERS....

Participants and Events:

- Colonial vittles with tripod cooking methods
- Demonstrations in the Colonial Village Square with Gunsmith, armourer, blacksmith, sutler, cobbler, miller, seamstress, lace maker, farmer, pottery maker, battlefield surgeon, chair maker, candlestick former, soap making, tin monger and white cooper.
- Over 300 members of the Continental Line
- British Units including The Kings Own 4th, the 10th Light Foot, the 5th Grenadiers
- Irish Artillery Company and the Henry Knox Artillery
- Benjamin Franklin plus a host of others
- A formal salute to the Boy Scouts on Saturday by the Revolutionary participants.

Contact Tom Weaver to volunteer and discuss ideas.

Mobile 978-337-0725

Email: tom@dtwsystems.com